A HEAVY STORM.

Much Damage Done to Farm Buildings and Crops in This Vicinity.

One of the heaviest storms that has visited this section of the country in many a year made its appearance Saturday night, during which there was a lot of damage done by the wind in the country west of here. Right in the city the wind was not any stranger than often accompanies some of our heavy rain storms, but out in the town of Sigel it took on the proportions of a cyclone and much damage resulted.

John Jognitzinski, who resides in the town of Sigel about seven miles from the city, was in town on Monday, and he reports that he was right in the path of the storm, and as a consequence he suffered a loss of about $2,000. His two barns were blown down and totally wrecked, and it was by almost a miracle that his horses were not killed also. He states that the storm struck his place about half past nine in the evening with terrific violence, accompanied by a downpour of rain and hail. He and his family were in the house at the time, and they realized that a heavy storm was in progress, they did not know that the buildings were being damaged until it was all over, owing to the noise made by the storm.

When the family went out to see what damage had been done they found that both barns had been blown to the ground and lay strewn about in a twisted and broken mass of timbers and stivers. One barn was 26x70 feet and the other, a structure that had just been finished, was 40x60, and both of them had suffered total destruction. The horses, of which there were four, were found safely among the timbers of one of the barns, the animals having been saved by the falling timbers striking across a threshing machine, which held them off from the stack. Mr. Jognitzinski carried an insurance of $500 on one of the wrecked buildings, but he figures his loss at fully $2,000.

Among the others who suffered damage out in that locality are John Ratke, roof blown from barn, John Stelmacher, barn damaged, Herman Jaeger, roof blown from barn, Joe Paterek near Vesper, hog barn wrecked, Frank Necko, buildings damaged, Mike Adams, damage to farm buildings, and Charley Peterson, new frame barn wrecked.

It is also reported that two were damaged considerably in some places, and it is thought that the loss will be fully one-third. The latter damage was probably caused more by the hail than anything else.

In this city the damage was caused mostly to the telephone and electric light systems. The lightning ran in at many places and burned out either telephones or electric lights, leaving the places in darkness, after which the vivid flashes of lightning were more apparent than before.

Adam Zimmerman of Rudolph was in the city on Monday and he reports considerable damage out his way both to growing crops and to buildings. There was hail and heavy rain and a gale of wind that twisted off many trees and unroofed buildings. Max Manofski had a new barn under way which was wrecked and Martin Hilger had the roof blown from his house. John Jacobson had a heifer killed by the lightning. John Bringham, who lives near Rudolph station in the town of Carson, had a large barn wrecked which had just been raised, but had not been completed, besides which much other damage was done of a smaller nature.

The continuance of the rain on Monday evening and night caused much damage throughout the country in this section by the washing out of bridges. Wherever there was a watercourse that crossed the highway the volume of water was greater than the bridges could accommodate, and the consequence was that in many instances they went out.

The bridge near the Bender place west of the city was washed out, and where this same creek crossed the Northwestern track south of the city the railroad was made impassable. Farmers living in low places were compelled to wade about their premises in many instances.

Death of Mrs. Bishop.

Mrs. T. S. Bishop, who formerly resided in this city, but for many years has lived at Creston, Iowa, died at her home on the 24th of May.

The following from the Stanton Call, tells of the funeral:

The funeral of Mrs. T. S. Bishop, of Creston, whose sudden death occurred Wednesday of last week, was held here Friday afternoon at two o'clock at the Methodist church. The body, accompanied by a host of relatives from Creston and eastern Iowa points arrived on No. 3 and was taken directly to the church. Previous to coming here, services were held at Creston at 9:30 in the morning conducted by Rev. Harvey, of Cambridge, and Rev. Flint, the latter, pastor of the Congregational church at Creston. These same two pastors had charge of the services here. The funeral here was largely attended by the many friends of the deceased. The church was beautifully decorated by the Ladies Aid and other friends. The interment was in the family lot in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. T. S. Bishop was born April 21, 1853, so that at the time of her death was 52 years of age. Her birthplace was West Warren, Pa. She was first married to R. G. Moore, to which union two children were born, Lottie and Floyd. Dec. 9, 1880, she was married to T. S. Bishop. To this union five children were born, two of whom, Harry and Myrtle died several years ago. Mrs. Bishop lived with the M. E. church here when it was first organized in 1888, and at the time of her death was still a member of the church here. She is a woman of whom we have heard spoken in highest terms of praise. No better helping hand could be found at the bedside of the sick than that of Mrs. Bishop. Friends she has made by the score, and all revere her memory.

Those present at the funeral from a distance were her husband T. S. Bishop, son Ralph and daughter Fern, of Creston, Claude Bishop and wife, of Orient, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shiffer, of Creston, Ia., and Floyd R. Moore of Houghton, Mich., which includes the members of the family.

Have Commenced Work.

The Baptist society commenced their work on their church edifice last week, and the but little has as yet been accomplished on account of the unfavorable weather, it is the intention to carry the work forward as rapidly as possible.

The basement of the building will be of red granite and the upper part of concrete. When completed the Baptists expect to have one of the most handsome churches in the city.

Rain Delays Work.

The Grand Rapids Foundry Co. had expected to start on the work of laying the foundations of their foundry and machine shop on Monday morning, but the excessive rainfall of the previous two nights had filled the ditches to the level of the surface of the ground, and as there was no way of draining off the water, the beginning had to be postponed for a time.

DO WE CELEBRATE?

Only One Month More in Which to Prepare for the National Holiday.

There seems to be a disposition among our citizens to celebrate the Fourth of July, but so far nobody has taken the initiative in the matter and it begins to look as if the matter would go by default, and that we would have no celebration at all. Last year the matter of celebrating was allowed to lapse until the last minute and the result was that we did not have as good a celebration as we might have had with even less work, had the matter been taken up in time.

Grand Rapids is peculiarly situated and it is impossible to hold a celebration that will give the universal satisfaction that is obtained in other places, nevertheless, whenever our citizens have taken hold of the matter of celebrating they have made a success of the venture and large crowds have turned out to take part in the affair.

In Circuit Court.

One of the cases that has been occupying the attention of the circuit court in this city during the past week is the Crawford will case, the principals being from near Plainfield. The property originally belonged to Marcus Crawford, and this is what is being litigated about. Mr. Crawford made his will in 1877, and died the following year. His widow was the only immediate heir and the property was left to her until her recent death. An attempt to divide the property brought about this suit, which is quite involved, it being necessary to determine just what part of the present property descended from the original and what has accrued from the personal efforts of certain parties at interest. Subsequent to her first husband's death Mrs. Crawford married Thomas Baker and as her heir he will appear as one of the principal litigants. The "Crawford children," descendants of Marcus Crawford's brother, Robert, are the plaintiffs and will be represented by Corrigan & Johnson, McFarland & Murat and B. R. Goggin. The defendants will be represented by W. B. Angelo and Park & Carpenter.

McKercher-Denno.

D. W. McKercher of this city and Miss Louise Denno of Merrill were married on Wednesday last at Minneapolis. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Schutter of the church of the Redeemer, and occurred at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. The witnesses to the ceremony were Edward Fletcher and Lynn Philtrout. Mr. and Mrs. McKercher will make their home in Minneapolis, where Mr. McKercher is interested in the Sanitary Cow Milk Co.

Mr. McKercher is well known in this city where he has lived the greater part of his life, and has many friends to wish him success on his journey thru life. The bride is one of Merrill's handsomest and accomplished young ladies, and has a number of friends in this city, where she has visited. The Tribune wishes with their many friends in extending the heartiest of congratulations.

Hydrophobia on an Almond Farm.

Stevens Point Journal:—Last Monday Dr. Norton of this city was called to Almond to inspect some cows belonging to Clarence Morgan. About four weeks ago a strange dog went into the Morgan pasture and bit one of the cows. Later Mr. Morgan noticed that two of the cows were acting queerly and shot them away from the balance of the herd. They refused to drink or to eat. After an examination of the animals Dr. Norton stated that they were suffering from hydrophobia and both were shot. Later another cow, which showed symptoms of the disease, was also killed.

Washouts Delay Trains.

Many of the trains running into this city were either delayed or abandoned altogether on Monday and Tuesday, owing to the high water and numerous washouts that occurred along the different lines.

The St. Paul line suffered the worst, the train that was due here Tuesday morning not getting in until about one o'clock that afternoon. Monday evening's train was caught near Junction City and failed to arrive, and the train going north from here that evening was also held up at Rudolph. The track was reported to be in very bad shape between Junction City and Rudolph, several washouts being reported. The train that got here Tuesday noon from the south was an extra, and was delayed by trouble on the main line. The train came only as far as this city when it was turned about and ran back to New Lisbon.

On the Northwestern line there was trouble between this city and Marshfield so that the trains were unable to get thru.

Outside of the trains on the North western being delayed somewhat, no damage was reported.

On the Green Bay and Western the trains were delayed, and no trains were sent west of this city on Monday owing to washouts along the line.

Flour in the River.

A quantity of flour in sacks came floating down the river on Tuesday morning which was seen by the men working on the dam at the Consolidated, and they made haste to pick up as much of it as possible. Investigation showed that the flour had been wet in only about an inch, and that the rest of it was all right, and as good for use as the flour had never been in the water. The flour came from Ed Rogers' mill located at Plover, and Rogers reports showed that a warehouse belonging to him had been wrecked by the high water and the flour dumped into the river. It was rather remarkable that the sacks got over the several dams without being broken by the rough usage. Mr. Rogers' loss is said to be considerable.

Fined for Assault.

Fred Sawatsky was arrested and taken before Justice Keyes on a charge of assault and battery, the complaining witness being Percy Favell.

Favell stated that he was going home with a couple of ladies when Sawatsky grabbed one of them. He pushed Sawatsky away when Sawatsky struck him in the back of the head. Then Favell struck him with an umbrella that he was carrying and ran, making his escape. He said that afterward Sawatsky laid for him but was unable to catch him. Sawatsky is a deaf mute and pleaded guilty to the charge, paying a fine of $2 and costs, amounting in all to $4.00.

Seen Prison Service.

Stevens Point Gazette:—Thomas Young, who was arrested and placed guilty to the charge of stealing an abstract book from the office of John R. McDonald, has had considerable experience behind the bars for one of his years. His home is at Grand Rapids, where his parents reside, and he was sent to Waupun for one year in the spring of 1903, for stealing. He also acknowledged having served time in the industrial school at Waushara. His mother visited him at the jail here on Saturday last.

The Monthly Stock Fair.

Next Tuesday, June 13th, is the date of the regular monthly stock fair which occurs in this city. Farmers and others interested in the matter should make it a point to be present and to bring in anything they may have to dispose of. The coming fair will be held on the market square on the west side and there is no reason why the coming event should not eclipse anything of the kind that has heretofore occurred in this city. Remember the day and date: Tuesday, June 13th.

CITY FATHERS MEET.

A Lot of Business Disposed of at Last Night's Session of the Council.

The regular meeting of the city council occurred at the city hall last night, Mayor Nash presiding and a quorum of aldermen being present.

The first matter that was taken up was that of making an appropriation toward the city library. F. P. Witter, as treasurer of the library association appeared before the council and asked for an appropriation of $1000, explaining that no appropriation had been made last year and that the institution was badly in need of funds. The running expense of the library is something like $1500 per year, and the income from money that has been given to the institution is only about $300, so that it is necessary to receive some $1200 from outside sources. Alderman Hill also spoke on the matter and later moved that the sum of $1000 be appropriated for the use of the library. Alderman Mulroy thought that $500 should be enough for the purpose, but the council granted the $1000.

A petition signed by Nae Rehnard and other merchants was presented asking that a crosswalk be put in on Front street at some convenient place for the business houses along that thoroughfare. The matter was referred to the street committee.

A petition was received from some of the residents of the 2nd and 4th wards asking for a sidewalk on Milwaukee street between the Milwaukee street and the Milwaukee street. Referred to the sidewalk committee. A remonstrance was also received from residents on Milwaukee street asking for a sidewalk that had been asked for on the south end of Milwaukee street but not built, as only a few of the property holders had asked for same. This was also referred to the sidewalk committee.

A petition signed by the Grand Rapids Foundry Co. and others asking that a sewer be constructed on High street on the west side was presented to the council. The Grand Rapids Foundry Co. has been unable to continue the work on their plant on account of the water that accumulates where they are located and the fact that there is no method of conducting it away. The matter was referred to the sewer committee, with power to act at once in the matter.

A petition was also presented asking that a sewer be put in on High street on the east side, in connection with the sewer that has already been started on that street. The matter was referred to the sewer committee.

A petition was presented asking that a sewer be put in at the street corner at Vine St. and Commercial St. Referred to the street committee.

A petition was received from Albert & McArthur, asking that they be granted the privilege to put in a sewer from their pickle factory to connect with the sewer of the city. Same to be installed at the expense of the company. Granted.

Alderman Hill, as chairman of the bell committee, made a report. This committee was appointed some time ago with instructions to secure a bell for the city hall, the one that had been in use having become broken. They reported that they could secure a bell weighing 325 pounds for $21.00 and that for $48.00 one could be bought weighing 414 pounds. The committee was instructed to go ahead and buy the bell that they thought would serve the purpose best.

The committee to whom was referred the petition asking that an arm lamp be placed near the Lincoln school made a report, recommending that until about twenty other lights that had been asked for could be put in, the matter be delayed. This report was accepted.

Alderman Porter made a report to the effect that he had let the job of clearing up the fair grounds for $10 and that the work was progressing nicely.

An ordinance granting the Grand Rapids Foundry company the right to erect and maintain a line of electric wires from the Consolidated plant to their new location on the west side was granted.

An ordinance was passed making it a misdemeanor for any person to use water from the city water works without first receiving a permit from the superintendent.

George W. Paulus presented a petition asking the council to take some action to do away with the accumulation of water that occurs within the dyke near his place. After some discussion it was decided by the aldermen that they would go to the place in a body and see what could be done in the matter.

G. A. Corriveau presented a bill to the council for $100 as damages sustained by him from the city. It seems that a difference of opinion exists between Mr. Corriveau and the city concerning some dirt that was removed from a lot belonging to Mr. Corriveau when he had intended to build. Nothing definite was done in the matter.

Alderman Mulroy as chairman of the street committee made a report concerning the numbering and naming of the streets of the city. Mr. Mulroy has received several bids for doing the work, but had been unable to decide on which was the proper method to pursue and was looking for information on the subject. As the council seemed to have no suggestion to make on the matter it was referred back to the street committee.

A number of accounts were also allowed during the session.

Employment on National Forest Reserves.

The Bureau of Forestry has published a circular giving information regarding employment on the National forest reserves. This circular explains how appointments to the Forest Service on the reserves are made, states the salaries of its members, and indicates the knowledge and experience required of rangers and supervisors, and the duties each must perform. The future organization will include Forest Supervisors at $2,500 to $2,800 a year, Deputy Forest Supervisors at $1,500 to $1,700, Forest Rangers at $1,200 to $1,400, Deputy Forest Rangers at $1,000 to $1,200, and Assistant Forest Rangers at $800 to $900.

The law requires that every applicant for a position in the Forest Service pass a Civil Service examination. Local residents in the State or Territory in which employment is desired is generally necessary, since only where examinations fail to secure a satisfactory man of applicants from other States. Appointments of Supervisors are made, so far as practicable, by promotion of competent rangers or forest assistants.

To be eligible as Forest Ranger the applicant must be physically sound, accustomed to outdoor work, and know how to take care of himself and his horse in regions remote from settlement and supplies. He must know something of surveying, estimating, and the livestock business. Some of the reserves require a specialist in one or more of these lines of work. The applicant must be thoroughly familiar with the region in which he seeks employment.

The entire time of Rangers is to be given to the service. Rangers, under the direction of the Forest Supervisor, patrol to prevent fires and trespass; estimate, survey, and mark timber, and supervise its cutting; in some cases, enforce game laws, and investigate claims, and make arrests for violation of forest laws.

Forest Supervisors must have all the qualifications of Rangers, combined with superior business and administrative ability. They deal with the public in all matters connected with the sale of timber, the control of grazing, the issuing of permits, and the use and occupancy of forest reserves. Knowledge of technical forestry is desirable, but not essential.

Work upon the forest reserves offers good and increasing opportunity for men of the right sort. Requests for information about the times and places when and where examinations will be held should be addressed to the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Insure Bank Deposits.

The Chronicle is in receipt of a brochure or little pamphlet written and circulated gratis by Hon. John Schuette, president of the Manitowish Savings bank, in which a topic, made timely by the recent defalcation of Banker Bigelow, is discussed thoroughly and convincingly—the insurance of deposits in national banks by a bank's mutual insurance company, under government control and supervision. The insurance or deposits in all banks has been a subject that has been more or less discussed for the past twenty-five years and it is really a wonder that so important a measure of safety has been so long neglected.

W. J. Bryan, when a member of congress, attempted the enactment of a law providing for the insurance of deposits in banks, but his efforts were fruitless. Mr. Schuette in his little pamphlet gives his idea or plan of rendering depositors absolutely secure by a form of mutual insurance, supervised by the government, and also shows how the public would be benefited thereby, as there would then be little danger of financial panics caused by runs on banks, and the available funds for business transactions would then afford absolute security to those who possessed money. No one would then risk their money anywhere else than in a bank. It could not then be robbed, lost or destroyed in any manner. Mr. Schuette is doing the country a great good by his advocacy of insuring bank deposits. He is sending his pamphlet out on a grand mission and it is to be hoped that it will speedily accomplish the same.—Two Rivers Chronicle.

Beall Still a Winner.

Fred Beall, the Marshfield wrestler, has been in the east for several weeks past, and on Saturday evening he wrestled John Piening of Brookton, Mass., throwing his man twice in seventeen minutes and winning the match. It seems that Piening has been considered quite a man down Brookton way for some reason or other, and when Beall disposed of him in such short order the people in that section thought there must be some take about it, it being impossible for them to believe that any man could come up in Wisconsin and show them anything down in that country.

Harvey Parker is manning Beall and he offers to match his man against any wrestler in the country for $1000 a side, barring none. Parker talks as if he thought that Beall could handle the best of them.

Summary of Railroad Rate Bill

There is provision for the appointment of three commissioners by the governor to be approved by the senate. Commissioners shall serve six years at a salary of $5,000 a year each and one shall be appointed every two years.

It requires that all service rendered by railroads shall be charged for at a just and reasonable rate and gives the commission power to see that such charges are just and reasonable.

Railroads are required to publish schedules of freight and passenger rates and shall not change such schedules without giving the railroad commission ten days' notice. It is made unlawful for a railroad to charge more than is specified in the schedules.

Nothing in the act shall be construed to prevent concentration, consolidation, transit and other special contract rates, but all such rates shall be open to all shippers for a like kind of traffic under similar circumstances and conditions, and shall be subject to the provisions as to the printing and filing of the schedules.

One car load shall be transported at as low a rate per ton and per mile as any greater number of car loads of the same class and kind of freight between the same points in the same direction.

There shall be but one classification of freight in the state, which shall be uniform on railroads, and shall be the same for state traffic as for interstate traffic.

The law does not prevent railroads from giving free transportation or lower rates to the United States government or to the state and allows shippers to go with live stock and be returned free of charge.

A penalty is provided for the failure of a railroad to furnish adequate facilities for shippers. The commission has power to decide whether the railroads are trying to evade this provision.

The commission has power on complaint and after ten days' notice to make a new rate, fare, charge or classification; or the commission may take such action of its own volition.

The rate fixed by the commission shall become effective in twenty days. All rates fixed by the commission shall be in force until overruled by court, and the new rates are not to be suspended pending the final ruling. The commission shall have power to examine the books of any railroad and any railroad refusing to allow this or failing to answer a summons from the commission shall be fined $100 to $1,000 for each day.

All railroads are required to file copies of all contracts with other transportation companies relative to the transportation of freight or passengers; also contracts with shippers, and list of persons who get free transportation.

The commission shall have power to ascertain interstate charges within the state and shall notify the interstate commerce commission if these charges are unjust or in violation of the federal law.

The giving of rebates, special rates, drawbacks, etc., is made a misdemeanor. The railroad offending in this manner is subject to a fine of $10,000 and the agent to a fine of $500 to $1,000 for each offense. The shipper accepting such favors is subject to $1,000 fine.

If any railroad shall do or cause to be done or permit to be done any matter, act or thing prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing required to be done by it, such railroad shall be liable to the person, firm or corporation injured thereby in the amount of damages sustained in consequence of such violation.

A blanket provision for a fine of from $1,000 to $10,000 is made for the violation of any section of the law not specifically provided with a penalty. A similar provision allows the commission to charge unreasonable rates not specifically provided for.

Provision is also made for investigating accidents and the prosecution of claims against railroads. The office of railroad commissioner is abolished.

A sufficient sum is appropriated to carry the law into effect and it shall become operative upon publication.

Death of Jennie Hasbrouck.

Miss Jennie Hasbrouck died at her home in this city on Tuesday morning, June 1st, after an illness extending over about a year, the cause of death being tuberculosis. Although she had been sick for some time, she had not suffered severely from the malady only since last fall, since which time she had failed quite rapidly and was able to be out only occasionally when the weather was favorable.

Miss Hasbrouck was born in Grand Rapids on the 13th of June, 1872, and has lived in this city ever since, and has a large number of friends here who unite with the family in genuine sorrow for her untimely demise, and extend to them the sincerest sympathy in their hour of affliction.

Miss Hasbrouck was a young lady of exceptional character, one who made a friend wherever she made an acquaintance and her loss is one that will be generally felt by all who knew her.

The funeral occurs on Thursday afternoon from the family home on the east side, the services to be conducted by the Rev. Fred Stutz of the Congregational church, of which she was a member.

Resolution of Thanks.

At a special meeting it was Resolved, That Wood Co. Post No. 22 G. A. R. extend a vote of thanks to all persons furnishing teams on Decoration Day, and especially to E. F. Arpin, and that this resolution be published in the city papers, and that the commander present a copy of this resolution to E. F. Arpin.

Notice.

The Advancement Association will meet Thursday night at 8 o'clock at the west side city hall for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and transact other business.

Graduation Exercises Witnessed by Large Numbers of Our Citizens.

The graduation exercises which were held in the auditorium of the Lincoln High school on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of last week were largely attended and it is estimated that during the three evenings there was something like two thousand people in attendance at the school. On Wednesday evening the Class Play was given, the title of which was "Merchant of Venice up to Date." It was a sort of a burlesque on Shakespeare's play of the Merchant of Venice, and it was handled in a manner by the scholars that was first class in every respect. There was a large audience present, and the applause showed that they were greatly pleased with the production. The cast of characters was as follows:

Another Scare for Rhinelanders.

When it comes to bringing out things that are truly wonderful, Rhinelanders is always at the front. The following telegram from that city tells of one of the latest inventions of one of its citizens, which will be appreciated by all:

"A local chemist has produced a liquid which is 11,000 times stronger than the best quality of beer and a drop of it placed in a large beer glass and filled with ice water produces a glass of pure beer of the finest grade."

The extract contains an alkaloid from hops, just 9,000 times stronger than crude hops, and the active principle of malt 12,700 times the strength of common malt made from the best barley.

With the above is combined an article which, on contact with water, produces instantaneous fermentation forming 2½ per cent alcohol, the amount existing in the best brand of beer. An ounce bottle of the extract will make 480 schooners, or about thirty-five gallons of pure beer."

Took a Cool Bath.

George Richter took an involuntary bath in the Wisconsin river on Tuesday afternoon. He, in company with F. G. Gilkey and Frazer Walsh had gone out in a boat to secure a large timber that was floating down the river. A rope was secured to the timber and Walsh and Gilkey took the oars while Richter sat in the stern of the boat to row the timber. When they started to row the boat swung around and the force of the current swept Richter into the river. He did not waste any time in getting back into the boat, however, and the boys report that he got out of the water so quickly that the handkerchief in his hip pocket was not even damp.

VICTOR HUGO.

Everything About Him Was Extraordinary, Even His Digestion.

Never to be forgotten were those evenings when we were lucky enough to find neither minister, senator nor deputy—for in the presence of political men Victor Hugo always seemed to me somewhat stiff—when he warmed to his subject, let himself go, as it were, and his conversation took a natural turn full of charm.

How he would then have astonished those who had represented him as being exceedingly solemn—in fact, as a possum! If they had seen him so it was doubtless due to themselves. Perhaps to the pompous and self-opinionated he gave himself the air of an oracle, but with poets, I repeat, he was ease and simplicity—I might even say familiarity—hisself.

At these dinners we could not help admiring his formidable appetite. He ate enormous pieces of roast meat and drank large glasses of undiluted wine. A typical detail struck me particularly. At the end of his meal he dipped or ate quarters full of his wine and ate them with marked satisfaction. Everything about Victor Hugo was extraordinary, even his digestion.—Francis Coppée in Critic.

One of our citizens was arrested last Thursday for riding a bicycle on the sidewalk and pleading guilty to the charge, paid a fine and costs amounting to something over three dollars. While the roads are a trifle better to walk than to incur the wrath of the law in little matters of this sort.

The State Horticultural Society has issued a bulletin on "spraying," which should prove a very valuable booklet to all growers of trees or plants. It covers the subject very

Ed Mahoney reports that the rain gauge at the court house showed that 5 1/2 inches of water fell during the storm of Saturday, Sunday and Monday night. This is quite a bit of water, but most of it had seeped out from the amount that stood about after the storm was over. If things keep up the way they have started in during June there ought to be some records broken.

The excessively high water has made it very uncomfortable for some of the people who live in the lower sections on the west side. In the neighborhood of the furniture factory there are several places where the ground has been covered with several feet of water, so that people were unable to get to and from their houses. Albert Gilmaster has been compelled to move out of his dwelling house on account of the water coming over the floor.

Boston Transcript.—You put him

see anything that is going on about him, and then you blame him for trembling and jumping and starting to run at every little noise. You forget how frightened you were when with blinded eyes you were initiated into the awful mysteries of the High Mighty Lodge of Unbiased and Superintendent Chinawiggers. And why shouldn't a horse be frightened
as easily as a donkey.

The little bridge south of Mike Fahrner's place was washed out by the heavy rains of Saturday night, and the road became impassable in consequence, and all the traveling over the river road was compelled to go round by way of the Wickham addition. As the road is a poor one in good weather, its condition can be better imagined than described after the rain we have been having. Those who had to pass over this stretch of road will agree that the settlers in that neighborhood were justified in petitioning the council to put that stretch of highway in better shape.

The joint committee on game laws has decided to allow each hunter only one deer hereafter, but that deer can be taken out of the state if the hunter so desires. There was quite a fight on in the matter of allowing hunters to shoot does and fawns.

There were a majority of the committee who thought that the solution of the game problem in Wisconsin lay in not allowing the hunters to shoot any more fawns and does, but the hunters of the state fought this measure with out exception. Quail shooting will be allowed during the last fifteen days of October.

GREAT WORK OF MUCU-TONE

How Rexall Catarrh Cure Won Our Endorsement Strictly On Its Merits

When we first heard of Rexall Mucu-Tone we were not particularly interested in it. We knew every Rexall remedy was made of the best materials and by experienced chemists and pharmacists, and we were satisfied that when the Rexall Company produced a catarrh cure it would be thoroughly meritorious.
But we were not at all "excited" about it.
When we saw the formula it struck us as something new and very good, so that when some of the first bottles of Mucu-Tone arrived we unhesitatingly recommended it to several chronic sufferers from catarrh—customers of ours.

Within a few weeks the reports began to come in and we heard of the prompt cure of case after case that had stubbornly resisted every other medicine and treatment, our interest grew until now we are honestly and earnestly enthusiastic about this splendid remedy.

Mucu-Tone is the cure for catarrh and if you could stand in our store day after day and hear the grateful words of sufferers who have been restored to health by it, you would grow just as confident as we are.

JOHN H. SPENGLER,
City Engineer Spengler, of Chicago, is one of the foremost men of his profession in this country. The plans for some of the greatest municipal works in the last few years have originated in his brain, and have been carried out under his technical direction. He is a man of commanding authority in his profession.

Regarding the merits of Mucu-Tone
he writes:
"Last winter I contracted a case of the grape and water. Hospital rooms and outside treatment of the membranes of the nose and throat, for which I could find no relief. I feared I was on the way to certain death. I tried the usual home remedies, but with merely an equivocal effect. My druggist called my attention to the merits of Mucu-Tone and in the course of a few days without question I bought a box and used it. The cure was radical."

J. H. SPENGLER
This is the testimony of hundreds.

Rexall Mucu-Tone works through the blood. It drives out the poisonous matter with which the mucous cells are congested, allays the inflammation and builds up the body. It makes sick people well; weak people, strong.

Remember that catarrh is not merely a disease of the head and throat, but that it may affect any or all of the organs of the body. Remember, too, that Rexall Mucu-Tone is the only positive and permanent cure known to science. Give it a trial and if not more than satisfied, we will refund your money without question.

Sold only at our store or by mail.
